GOD'S TIMING

I'm sitting at the OA office fulfilling my commitment as volunteer on the second Monday of each month. I just got off the phone with A.L., a long time member of our fellowship. When A.L. called the OA office, she had no idea I would be staffing the office telephone. When I picked up the phone, I, of course, had no idea who would be at the other end. I was pleasantly surprised to hear her voice. Once we were able to take care of her inquiries, we shared a wonderful, uplifting conversation about meetings, abstinence, service, and step work. Is this not the program working at its best? Is this not living in recovery? Is this not an affirmation of the "we-ness" of our journey? I would answer, "Yes!", "Yes! and "Yes!"

Was it simply happenstance or serendipity that brought us together this morning? I don't think so. I believe God was doing for us what she and I were unable to accomplish ourselves. Circumstances converged to put the two of us in each other's company – two OA souls, sharing and supporting, loving and learning, and most importantly – being grateful to believe in a Power greater than ourselves.

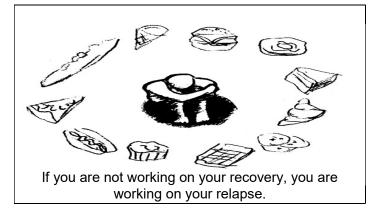

It's these "little" things I especially value in my recovery. Obviously the big achievements are absolute milestones, but it is the day-to-day minutia – like a simple unexpected phone conversation with a fellow OAer – which validates I am truly on the right path. Recognize the sign posts and you'll realize God's timing is always perfect.

- Peggy E.

TWO IMPORTANT PHONE CALLS

I am not a telephone friendly person, but two experiences using the telephone as a tool in my OA program had a good effect. I phoned a fellow OA person and you would think I had made her day. She was so happy I called and we had a nice conversation. My second phone call stopped a fellow sufferer from going to the refrigerator. Again, she was so glad I called at that particular time. No wonder the phone is a tool in our program.

— M.L.

Welcome, my friend and a friend you must be - for letting me help you also helps me. Yes, I've had a problem, so you are not alone. If you care to discuss it, just pick up the phone.

Is the Food Calling to You? MAKE THE CALL - YES, YOU CAN. START TODAY

If you want to make an OA call, but don't know whom to call, call the long-time OA member who wrote the God's Timing article on this page:

Peggy E. 314-314-752-6836

Also - our OA office (314-638-6070) can provide a list of OA members to you who are happy to receive telephone calls.

WHY IS IT?

I asked my sponsor, "Why is it that what I thought would make me happy didn't? Why did I keep doing it? And why is it that I go to Overeaters Anonymous and do things I don't want to do and get happy? It's crazy. Why is it?"

"The answer is very simple," my sponsor said. "It's because you have two brain cells and one is broken."

"What?" I loudly reacted, "Thanks a lot. That sure sounds like great news for me!" We both laughed. She continued to tell me that I have an eating disorder that tells me I don't have an eating disorder – but I do. It makes me do all kinds of crazy, unpredictable behaviors – especially with the food.

But there is GOOD NEWS - I have a way out. I know nothing about how to recover from my compulsive over and under eating – in short, my food addiction. However, my answers are in the OA 12 & 12 and Alcoholics Anonymous Big Book. With this knowledge, I am in a better place to start my recovery now. Why wait?

Need help? Have questions? If you are unsure, call us. We are here to help you. Just pick up the 200 pound phone and be surprised how light it becomes when you hear the understanding person on the other end of your call. We are right by the phone, waiting for your call. Just hold your nose and jump in. -S.D.

HIGHLIGHTS OF MARCH 11 INTERGROUP MEETING

- Elizabeth C. was elected as a world service representative. Christina D. and Pat M. were elected at Region 4 representatives.
- There was some discussion on the need for an OA meeting in the St. Louis City.
- There was discussion about the possibility of having booths at St. Louis Pride Fest and Black Pride Fest. Intergroup voted to allow the board to decide before the next Intergroup meeting to reserve at these events, if the costs were considered affordable.
- There was discussion about asking meetings to cover the cost of newsletter postage. No decision was reached.
- At the February Unity Day, the commitment used a "tip jar" for the first time and made announcement about OA Intergroup's financial need, resulting in contributions of $213. Let's repeat this at other recovery events and see how it works out.
- Intergroup chair JMO has had hip surgery and vice chair Susan T. is healing from a broken arm. Best wishes for a speedy recovery!

Our next Intergroup meeting is Sunday, May 6 at 1:30 at Missouri Baptist Hospital in the auditorium room area.

Please send a representative from your group to this important monthly meeting, which acts as a group conscience for over 45 groups in our bi-state region.
